

PLEASE do not change the present telephone soliciting law in Indiana. For once, I can sit down for a meal or relax with the television and not be hassled by someone wanting to make an appointment to show me a "better" product. I did not have to pay anything for this and that is wonderful. I use to recieve at least 10 calls a week. I love not being hassled. Please leave this alone.